Crawford Cemeteries

Morgan Township Cemetery

Schleswig, Crawford County, Iowa

Located 2 miles south of Schleswig on Highway 59

According to information available in the year 1872 a plot of two acres was designated in Morgan Township (Section 25) as a public burial ground. The first person whose burial was officially recorded in the cemetery was Herman Mundt.

On June 26, 1875, all of Section 25 of Morgan Township, including the two acres of the cemetery, was purchased by Hans and Catherine Nissen from the Iowa Railroad Land Company for the sum of approximately $4,000.

The first Board of Directors consisted of: Claus Mundt, President; John Gibson, Vice President; John Holling, Secretary; J.C. Jensen, Treasurer; Henry Stamer, Christian Putzier and John Sievers.

In the month of May, 1876, Hans Nissen sold four acres in the southeast corner of their property to the Morgan Township Cemetery Association for the amount of $60. As a tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Nissen the cemetery was called the Nissen Cemetery. The first lot was sold to Johan Bendixen.

In about July, 1898, two acres of land were purchased from Julia Sievers at a total cost of $50. and were added to the cemetery. At this time lots were selling for $5. In 1905, four acres of land were purchased from Hans D. Baeth for the total amount of $400.

In 1962, two acres of land were purchased from Leonard Dieter for $1,000. This two acre tract is called the new addition. No other land has been added since that time. In 1942, the cemetery was placed under perpetual care. Lots were assessed at $100.00.

I obtained permission from the board of trustees of the Morgan township cemetery, Schleswig, Iowa, to document and use this material in the Crawford county Iowa GenWeb pages and to upgrade their records to electronic as of this date, July 24, 2000.

Freddie Friedrichsen assisted with filling in some lot and space numbers. The library at Schleswig, Iowa, allowed me to copy their records, most were incomplete. Physically walking to document all grave sites was a necessity.

Ina Mae Bliesmann, Mary Claussen, and my husband, Loren Peters assisted me.

Betreff:

Sehr geehrte Frau Springer, bei unseren Nachforschungen konnten folgende Teilergebnisse erzielt werden:

1. In den Auswanderungsakten unseres Archivs ermittelten wir, daß am 18. April 1865 für die unverehelichte Elise Gehring aus Neuhoof, geboren am 30. November 1842, Tochter der verstorbenen Tagelöhnerleute Gehring in Neuhoof (Domanialamt Grabow) beim Mecklenburg-Schwerinschen Ministerium des Innern ein Antrag auf Erteilung eines Auswanderungskonsenses gestellt wurde. Durch das o.g. Ministerium wird der Konsens am 20. April 1865 erteilt (siehe anliegende Kopien).
2. Unterlagen über eine Auswanderung von Wilhelm Johann Ludwig Gehring, geboren am 19. Oktober 1844 (vermutlich in Neuhoof) und dessen Ehefrau Dorothea, geb. Priess, in dem von Ihnen genannten Zeitraum konnten in unserem Archiv nicht ermittelt werden.

Wir empfehlen Ihnen, sich an das Domarchiv Ratzeburg, Domhof 35, W-2418 Ratzeburg, zu wenden, da dort die mecklenburgischen Kirchenbücher vor 1876 aufbewahrt werden und sie möglicherweise nähere Informationen über Ihre Ahnen erhalten könnten. Weiterhin empfehlen wir Ihnen, sich an das Staatsarchiv Hamburg, ABC-Str. 19, Eingang A, W-2000 Hamburg 36, zu wenden, da dort auch Einschiffsregister aufbewahrt werden.

Für Bearbeitungsgebühren, einschließlich der Anfertigung von Kopien, berechnen wir Ihnen 40,- DM.

Mit freundlichen Grüßen

DEATH ENDS LONG SUFFERING

WILHELM GHRING SR. PASSED AWAY AT HIS HOME IN DENISON ON SATURDAY MORNING

Suffered a Paralytic Stroke Some Thirteen Months Ago—Reached Age of 77 Years.

At his home on Court Street in this city, occurred the death of Mr. Wilhelm Gehring Sr. Sunday morning, May 14, at nine o'clock. Mr. Gehring has been bedfast for about thirteen months, having suffered a paralytic stroke in April last year. His wife and children gave him the best of care and his last days were made as pleasant as possible for him. Mr. Gehring for about twenty-five years was one of the highly respected and successful farmers of Hanover township, taking active interest in community affairs and was well known in that part of the county.

Wilhelm Johann Ludwig Gehring was born October 19, 1844, in Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany and was there united in marriage to Miss Dorothea Prieb. Three children were born to this union, one of them preceeding the father to the great beyond. On June 3rd 1869 the family came to Chicago, where they made their home until 1880. From the big city they came to Crawford County, taking up farming in Hanover township. Being very successful in their agricultural pursuits, they were able to retire from the farm in May 1903 and came to Denison, where Mr. Gehring now has passed away. Those left to mourn his departure are his widow, two children: Mrs. Wilhelmine Marquardt and Mrs. Wm. Gehring Jr., both of this city, ten grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren, as well as a large circle of friends.

The funeral services were held Tuesday, May 16, at 2 p. m. at the Lutheran church, Rev. Frese officiating, and interment took place in the Morgan township cemetery. Six grandchildren acted as pallbearers. The Bulletin joins friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved.

Too Much Hootch.

Arthur Mahin, farmer of Ida county and his wife motored to Denison on last Thursday in their truck, bringing a load of chickens to market. We do not know whether it was because he —Miss Alice Richards is spending the week-end at the Fort Bayard hotel, where she made a call with her brother, Charles, reports that his health is improved, a fact his many friends are extremely sorry to hear.

Dear Mr. Gehring:

For family history purposes, I am trying to locate the descendants of William and Dortha Gehring, who emigrated from Germany with their children Minnie and Fred.

They had a son William in Chicago in 1870 and moved to Denison not long afterward, where I believe the family remained. Their son married and had a son William in 1891.

My great-great grandmother was Elizabeth Gehring Mueller, sister of the William Gehring who emigrated. My grandmother was Florence Cassin Hintz from Chicago.

I would appreciate hearing if you are a descendant or if you might know of anyone who might be. I have enclosed self-addressed stamped envelope.

Sincerely,

RESPECTED AND AGED LADY CALLED TO FINAL REST

Mrs. Dorathia Gehring Died Monday at Home of Daughter, Mrs. H. Marquardt

Death called home another of Crawford county's pioneer ladies Monday when Mrs. Dorathia Gehring died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Marquardt, on Court street in this city.

For nearly fifty years she has been a resident of Crawford county and with her husband came here when the county was primitive and wild. By hard work and close attention to their business they accumulated much of this world's goods, helped develop the country and raised a family. She was a kind lady, a helpful wife and a devoted mother and the sorrow of her many friends marks the esteem in which she was held.

Mrs. Dorathia Gehring, nee Prieha, was born April 20, 1842, in the province of Brandenburg, Germany, and died in Denison, Iowa, on Monday, February 7th, at 9:45 a. m. She was 84 years, 9 months and 17 days of age at the time of her death.

In March, 1864, she became the wife of William Gehring in Germany. To this union were born three children, one of whom, a son, died in 1895. The living are: Mrs. Minna Marquardt and William Gehring, both of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Gehring departed from the Fatherland in June, 1869, and came to the United States, locating at Chicago. This city was their home up until 1880. February 14th of that year they came to Crawford county and started farming in Hanover township. They continued their farming operations until 1903, when they retired and moved to Denison. Her husband departed this life May 14, 1922, and since his death she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Henry Marquardt.

Besides her son and daughter she leaves to mourn her death nine grandchildren, 20 great grandchildren, and other relatives and a host of friends.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Lutheran church, Rev. Wm. Brown officiating. Interment was made in the Hanover township cemetery.

The Bulletin extends the sorrowing relatives a sincere sympathy and condolences.

Hello, my name is Tena Schroeder. This afternoon while adding some info to the Crawford County GenWeb site I took note of the obituaries you added of the Gehring family. I am looking for information on this family.

My husband is a descendent of Peter Henry Marquardt and his wife, Wilhelmina "Minnie" C. Gehring. I had been told her parents were William and Dora Gehring. I was later told that Minnie came to the US with her nursemaid not her mother. Minnie was born on June 19, 1863 in Germany. She married Peter Marquardt in 1885 in Crawford County, Iowa. She died in 1938 and is buried at Morgan Cemetery near Schleswig.

Do you think you could add some light to this for me? I know very very little about this branch in the family and would appreciate any help. Just last weekend while home visiting my husband's family (we're in Indiana) we were looking through some old family photos and news clippings. I found a postcard from "Aunt Annie Gehring" to my husband's great grandmother, Adela Marquardt Schroeder (Peter and Minnie's daughter). I also found a funeral card for Fred C. Gehring, Died May 23, 1895, Aged 28 Yrs 11 Mos 18 days. I do not know how these individuals fit in the family tree and I would like to find out.

Look forward to hearing from you. Thanks for posting.

Baumhammers also found an object in his vehicle that they plan to turn over to arson investigators. They would not describe it.

Baumhammers was arraigned on a charge of homicide and reckless endangerment and remained jailed Saturday. The FBI has joined the investigation to determine if federal hate crimes were committed.

Allegheny County Police Detective Ken Fulton said Baumhammers hasn't talked about the shootings.

Rabbi Neal Scheindlin, at the Beth El Congregation where Gordon had been a member, said even if the shootings Friday and those two months ago in Wilkinsburg were racially motivated, he does not believe racial tensions are particularly high in the Pittsburgh area.

"I take these as more or less random and put them down to the individuals involved," Scheindlin said Saturday.

"We can't allow people who hate to win," said Sheila Schmeltz, the synagogue president. "Windows can be replaced. Swastikas can be removed. But five people can't live again. That's senseless."

At Baumhammers' home, where the one-time immigration lawyer lived with his parents, lawyer William Difenderfer answered the door Saturday morning, saying he could not discuss the case, his client or the family.

Baumhammers' parents, both dentists, were described by Gordon's husband, Sanford, as "pillars of the community."

"They're devastated as to what happened and they are extremely sympathetic to the victims and their families," Difenderfer said. "Right now, we're trying to piece things together."

He also stated that the cost was figured on a masonry basis.

School board officials were happy with the design of the building and expressed hope that everyone would make an effort to get out and work for the approval of the bonds.

Entrance

The proposed senior high school will be built at the athletic field site with entrances from the northwest and the northeast.

At present there is an entrance from the northeast, and the board stated they have definitely made provisions for an entrance to come in from the northwest.

So far, requests from 26 have been received for applications, according to Denis business manager Larry. Those, 10 potential candidates outside of Iowa, with the rest from within the state. Completion materials have been received from three candidates.

Applications are being accepted for the position through Monday. On Wednesday, July 26, a committee will go through the application materials of the candidates and make recommendations to the board that evening as to which candidates best fit the requirements that have been established for filling the position.

School board president L. Wessendorf expressed his approval of approximately 30 completed applications and said he will choose from once the application process is completed.

The board also continues to discuss a possible physical plant improvement levy. Business manager Struck told the board that he has formed to look into a levy plan and is recommending a 60 cent valuation levy. Using the latest figures, this would raise approximately $118,775 for the levy. The committee is also recommending that the funds come from a tax income surtax, and the rest would come from property taxes.

Board member Craig expressed his approval of the levy between income and property taxes. "It's something that needed to be done for a long time," he said.

The board took no action on the levy process for the time being and will wait until a new superintendent is hired and has a chance to meet with the board. Struck said the board will meet again at the levy and make a decision concerning it later in the month. The levy will be in place for the 1996-97 school year. A vote will have to take place in the fall of 1996.

NOELCK, Henry and Violette (Brandt)

Our History: Pride in our Past...Faith in our Future Westside, Iowa Quasiquicentennial 1869-1994, p. 193

Henry William Noelck (1903-1950), son of Joachim and Maria Noelck of Arcadia, and Violette E. Brandt, daughter of Claus and Emma Brandt of Arcadia, settled in Westside following their marriage in 1927. Henry was employed by Standard Oil as tank wagon agent until shortly before his death. He served as town councilman for eight years, air raid warden during World War II, church treasurer for Zion Lutheran in Arcadia, and was loving father to Warren, Myron, and Shirley.

Violette (born 1906) kept house, children, and church activities rolling smoothly until 1950, working as telephone operator for Bill Byrnes and in the Horsehead Cafe for 22 years prior to retirement at age 72. She continues to live in Westside in her home of 65 years.

Warren (1928-1990) graduated from Westside High School, served in the Army during the Korean War, and was employed by railroad crews as telegrapher for the railroad, a trucking firm in Omaha, and an optical company in Glendora, California. he married Mary Alice Mohr of Manning and was the father of three children: Linda, Gregory, and Christopher. His family currently resides in Glendora.

Myron (1931-1991) graduated from Westside High School, served in the Army during the Korean War, and was employed by Motorola Corporation in Chicago for many years following his marriage to Corinne Drotleff of Cleveland, Ohio. His wife and children, Michael and Michele are living in Naperville, Illinois.

Shirley (born 1938) graduated from the last class of Westside High School in 1956, from Northwest Missouri State College in 1960, and the University of Iowa in 1967. She has taught choral music in public schools and colleges of Iowa, Illinois, and Ohio. Married to Wayne Drotleff of Cleveland, Ohio, in 1974, she lives in Mayfield Heights, Ohio, helping to rear two children, Diane and Kurt, and teaching classes in a public school system near her home.

Well friends, these are the biographical facts, but the real history of our family is an accumulation of wonderful, dear memories. At random, to mention only a very few among the many:

Christmas Eve programs at church and the brown paper bag with candy, nuts, and fruit following the service.

The parade of visitors to Myron's "laboratory," the garage lights blazing with all the building and creating.

Mom driving Myron's funny car constructed from old parts in D.E. Benton's iron pile, parts from four transmissions and the driver's seat above the gas tank!

No complaints from my family as I practiced Beethoven instead of dishwashing.

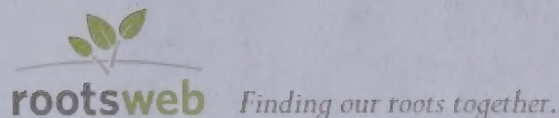

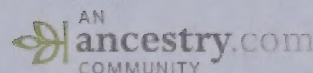

Falling asleep under piles of coats at all those birthday card parties.

Mom's frequent sage advice - "Get a good education!"

The laughter, the love, the sacrifices, the friends, and the good "Iowa folks."

The Berne Cheese plant purchase closed Thursday. Strong said his total commitment, including the purchase price and additional investment, is about $1.5 million.

The news cheered Adams County residents, not just because the plant is reopening, but because the buyer is a respected local businessman.

"I know Don Strong is a top-notch person," said Barb Sprunger, executive manager of the Berne Chamber of Commerce. "He'll do a great job with Berne Cheese."

"He has a vested interest in the community," said Mark Merkle, Adams County extension agent. "This is what everybody has been hoping for."

Employment will depend on production levels, Riemer said, which he and Strong will determine. Before it closed, Berne Cheese handled

Michigan and Ohio, he said.

The retail outlet also will be remodeled soon, with additional retail stores a possibility, Strong said.

Graham Cheese Co. of Elnora, in southwestern Indiana, has bought milk from area farmers at the plant since the beginning of March. Riemer said he and Strong need to meet with Amish farmers and hold discussions with Graham Cheese to discuss how that situation can be handled. Riemer said he sympathized with farmers who have been unsure of a milk buyer for the past few months.

Grade B milk is not handled completely by automated machinery, as is Grade A milk, and cannot be sold for drinking.

Strong is willing to give the plant time to pay back his investment. "The people who were there know how to make good cheese," he said. "This is a private company. We can wait a little longer for our return."

caught 29 passes for 205 yards and three touchdowns. He led the Cougars in rushing despite missing the last six games of the season because of shoulder surgery.

"He breaks a lot of tackles, and had he played four years like Errick Rhett and some of those other guys, I probably would have had him rated behind (only) Marshall Faulk," said Clarence Schelmon, the Seahawks' running-backs coach. "I think that highly of him. He has some pure instinctive running skills."

As a junior in 1992, Smith ran 111 times for 845 yards and seven touchdowns. He also caught 30 passes for 315 yards and three touchdowns. His 7.6 yards-per-rush average was the best of any of the nation's top 50 running backs that season.

Smith helped his status at February's NFL draft combine in Indianapolis when he ran a 4.63-second 40-yard dash and also caught the ball well.

BERNE: Cheese plant back in business in mid-May

Strong's new challenge is the Adams County cheese plant that closed Feb. 7. The impact of halting production at Berne Cheese extended beyond the 25 plant employees who were laid off. About 100 farmers, primarily Amish, sold Grade B milk to the plant. Approximately 12,000 visitors a year toured the facility as one of the town's tourist attractions.

Berne is about 30 miles southeast of Fort Wayne.

Russell Riemer, plant manager, hopes to resume production by mid-May. Machinery was removed to replace flooring and now is being reset, he said.

The Berne Cheese plant purchase closed Thursday. Strong said his total commitment, including the purchase price and additional investment, is about $1.5 million.

The news cheered Adams County residents, not just because the plant is reopening, but because the buyer is a respected local businessman.

"I know Don Strong is a top-notch person," said Barb Sprunger, executive manager of the Berne Chamber of Commerce. "He'll do a great job with Berne Cheese."

No arrests had been made in the incident this morning.

So far this year, four Detroit men have died in Fort Wayne — as the result, detectives believe, of drug dealing. But Grannan said there was no indication that yesterday's shooting was linked to drugs.

This morning, police discovered that one of the Detroit men may be using an alias and that he is wanted in connection with a previous crime. The nature of his criminal history was not immediately available.

Seahawks officials told Smith he's going to both run the ball, and run opposition as a fullback.

Because many NFL fullbacks are bigger than Smith, his size was thought to be a drawback.

"I don't think my size will be a problem because I'll stick my nose in there," he said. "I'm just as strong as any of those guys."

The Seahawks like his ability to catch passes and block.

"I'm very happy with Seattle," Smith said. "I'll have a chance to play ... a chance to come in and show what I can do. I just wanted to get my foot in the door."

Smith's agent is Fort Wayne attorney Eugene Parker.

The Seahawks may be able to use Smith right away. Last year's fullback, John L. Williams, signed a free-agent contract with the Pittsburgh Steelers last weekend. The Seahawks also have Chris Warren, who rushed for more than 1,000 yards the last two seasons.

"I think that when you see Lamar play, you'll realize he brings something else different to the table than what we have as a runner," Schelmon said. "I think with a little work he can step right in and replace John L. Williams as our third-down back."

about 500,000 pounds of milk during a four-day week.

Cheese will bear the Berne Cheese label, he said.

Strong began his business 35 years ago in Ossian. With annual sales of about $24 million, Richards today employs about 1,000, with 20 Richards restaurants in northern Indiana; Bear Creek Farm, a family-entertainment complex about seven miles from Berne, with a restaurant, campgrounds, theater and gift shops; Homelike Foods in Bryant, a maker of salads, salad dressings and soups for supermarkets; Crackers Cove near Orlando, Fla.; and a citrus farm, also near Orlando.

Strong thinks Homelike's distribution network might help expand Berne Cheese's market. The Richards unit sells products in Indiana, Michigan and Ohio, he said.

The retail outlet also will be remodeled soon, with additional retail stores a possibility, Strong said.

Graham Cheese Co. of Elkhart, in southwestern Indiana, has bought milk from area farmers at the plant since the beginning of March. Riemer said he and Strong need to meet with Amish farmers and hold discussions with Graham Cheese to discuss how that situation can be handled. Riemer said he sympathized with farmers who have been unsure of a milk buyer for the past few months.

LAW & ORDER

Appeals court awards new trial in 1992 child molesting case

By KEVIN CORCORAN
of our Indianapolis Bureau

INDIANAPOLIS — The Indiana Court of Appeals yesterday ordered a new trial for Dalan E. Underwood, who was convicted of child molesting in a 1992 Allen Superior Court case.

The court ruled Underwood, of Fort Wayne, did not get a fair trial before Judge Philip R. Thieme because Underwood was denied the right to cross-examine his victim, a 4-year-old boy, and had not waived his right.

The boy told police Underwood forced him to perform oral sex on Underwood.

Twice before trial, Underwood's attorney tried to take sworn testimony from the child, but each time the court reporter was not able to administer an oath to the boy.

Underwood's attorney then asked the court to find the boy was unavailable as a witness because of his inability to understand the nature and obligation of an oath. On Sept. 14, 1992, the court held a hearing to determine the boy's competence to act as a witness. At the hearing, Thieme agreed with Underwood's attorney and ruled the boy was not competent to act as a witness in the criminal case.

The prosecutor then moved to introduce hearsay statements the boy had made to a relative; to Patricia Smallwood, director of the Fort Wayne Police Department Victim Assistance Program; and to city police Detective Hilda Williams. After hearings in November 1992, Thieme ruled the statements these witnesses planned to give were reliable and admissible.

Underwood said his right to confront and cross-examine the child was denied because the child did not appear at this hearing. The state argued that Underwood's right to cross-examine the child had not been denied because he had an opportunity to do so at the child's competency hearing and at the attempted depositions.

But the appellate court ruled Underwood's rights were violated because the child did not attend the hearing on admissibility of the adults' second-hand statements. Indiana law requires that if children are not going to testify, they be made available for questioning at such hearings to help assess the reliability of witnesses who will testify on their behalf.

The appellate court said the admission of the hearsay statements was not the reason for the reversal. Underwood is entitled to a new trial instead because the case against him consisted entirely of hearsay evidence from the three witnesses he could not challenge by having the child questioned.

Alleged NBD robber poor before holdup

► And after the crime, he told a driver who picked him up that he'd robbed a bank, records show.

By JOHN MCGAULEY
of The News-Sentinel

Hours before he allegedly robbed an NBD Bank branch, Joseph Barva had $5 to his name.

Three hours after the holdup, he had more than $900 in his pockets — including $90 in bills police quickly traced to the teller's cash drawer Barva is accused of pilfering.

Barva, 40, of Huron Street near Center Street, was arrested about 2:30 p.m. Friday in connection with the robbery of the NBD branch at 3308 N. Anthony Blvd. earlier that day.

Barva was formally charged with armed robbery during an initial court hearing yesterday.

According to court records made public after the hearing, Barva left his girlfriend's home about 8:15 a.m. on the morning of the robbery. He borrowed $5 from her, police said, claiming to have no money.

He also borrowed the woman's car. Witnesses reported seeing a car with her license plates speeding away from the bank, and the woman said Barva had been driving it all day, court records said.

About 11:30 a.m. Friday, Barva allegedly entered the bank, ordered employees and customers to lie on the floor and jumped over the counter. He allegedly went through a teller's cash drawer, police believe, then fled in his girlfriend's car.

After he was arrested, Barva had almost $910 in cash, court records said. Fort Wayne Police Detective Donald Flueckiger said 18 $5 bills found on Barva had serial numbers matching bait money contained in the cash drawer he allegedly raided.

Before he was arrested, police believe Barva further incriminated himself. A Fort Wayne man called police to say he'd picked up a man on Lake Avenue. The picked-up man — whom the driver later identified from photos as Barva — allegedly gave the man $20 to take him to an undisclosed address in Waynedale. When the driver ordered the man out of the car, Barva told him he had just robbed a bank and could pay him to keep driving him, court records said.

When Barva got out, Flueckiger said, the driver found a nylon stocking and a jacket with a pair of black gloves in the back seat. During yesterday's hearing, bond for Barva was set at $52,500. He remained in the City-County Lockup this morning.

Obituaries

Mr. and Mrs. Odebolt
William Gehring

William Carl Gehring, son of William Gehring and Dorothea, nee Priess, was born May 17, 1870, and died at Denison June 4 at the age of 80 years.

He was born in Chicago and came with his parents to Crawford county in 1880. He was married Jan. 14, 1891, to Anna Jepsen. The couple had three children.

The family lived on a farm in Hanover township until 1918 when they moved to Denison.

Mr. Gehring was baptized when he was a child and later was confirmed in the Zion Lutheran church in Denison.

Survivors include his widow, two sons, William Gehring of Denison and Edward Gehring of Odebolt, and a daughter, Mrs. Adele Christiansen, of Ida Grove; 12 grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, June 7, with the Rev. Carl W. Schmidt as minister.

Pallbearers at the funeral were William Gehring, Louis Gehring, Eddie Gehring, Vernon Iwen, John Christensen and Bobby Christensen. Burial was at Morgan township cemetery.

the country's history. It will be a four-day vacation. More than 36 million motor vehicles will be on the move.

The increasing number of new cars on the road and the substantial rise in gasoline consumption this year indicate a heavy death toll—unless everyone is fully aware of the holiday hazards and makes a real effort to avoid them.

"Holidays are hazard days," said Ned H. Dearborn, president of the council. "When you take a chance on the highway you are gambling—and the stakes are human lives. You can't afford to lose in this game."

"Police and those who have authoritative control over public safety will be especially alert and vigorous in their enforcement of sane rules of public behavior. But they can't police every mile of every highway. The individual must police himself."

"If everyone would keep in mind the words 'Take It Easy on the Fourth—Be Alive on the Fifth', this Fourth of July would bring much less tragedy and much more pleasure."

His wife and children gave him the best of care and his last days were made as pleasant as possible for him. Mr. Gehring for about twenty-five years was one of the highly respected and successful farmers of Hanover township, taking active interest in community affairs and was well known in that part of the county.

Wilhelm Johann Ludwig Gehring was born October 19, 1844, in Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany and was there united in marriage to Miss Dorothea Prieb. Three children were born to this union, one of them preceeding the father to the great beyond. On June 3rd 1869 the family came to Chicago, where they made their home until 1880. From the big city they came to Crawford County, taking up farming in Hanover township. Being very successful in their agricultural pursuits, they were able to retire from the farm in May 1903 and came to Denison, where Mr. Gehring now has passed away. Those left to mourn his departure are his widow, two children: Mrs. Wilhelmine Marquardt and Mrs. Wm. Gehring Jr., both of this city, ten grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren, as well as a large circle of friends.

The funeral services were held Tuesday, May 16, at 2 p. m. at the Lutheran church, Rev. Freese officiating, and interment took place in the Morgan township cemetery. Six grandsons acted as pallbearers. The Bulletin joins friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved.

RESPECTED AND
AGED LADY CALLED TO FINAL REST

Mrs. Dorathia Gehring Died
Monday at Home of Daughter, Mrs. H. Marquardt

Death called home another of Crawford county's pioneer ladies Monday when Mrs. Dorathia Gehring died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Marquardt, on Court street in this city.

For nearly fifty years she has been a resident of Crawford county and with her husband came here when the county was primitive and wild. By hard work and close attention to their business they accumulated much of this world's goods, helped develop the country and raised a family. She was a kind lady, a helpful wife and a devoted mother and the sorrow of her many friends marks the esteem in which she was held.

Mrs. Dorathia Gehring, nee Priehs, was born April 20, 1842, in the province of Brandenburg, Germany, and died in Denison, Iowa, on Monday, February 7th, at 9:40 a. m. She was 84 years, 9 months and 17 days of age at the time of her death.

In March, 1864, she became the wife of William Gehring in Germany. To this union were born three children, one of whom, a son, died in 1895. The living are: Mrs. Minna Marquardt and William Gehring, both of this city.

Mrs. and Mr. Gehring departed from the Fatherland in June, 1863, and came to the United States, locating at Chicago. This city was their home up until 1880. February 14th of that year, they came to Crawford county and started farming in Hanover township. They continued their farming operations until 1903, when they retired and moved to Denison. Her husband departed this life May 14, 1922, and since his death she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Henry Marquardt.

Besides her son and daughter she leaves to mourn her death nine grandchildren, 20 great grandchildren, and other relatives and a host of friends.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Lutheran church. Rev. Wm. F. Fitch officiating. Burial in the cemetery of the Lutheran church.

The Bulletin extends its sorrowing condolences a sincere sympathy and confidence.

In the afternoon a gentlemanly salesman visited several pool halls, candy stores and soft drink parlors endeavoring to place punch boards. He succeeded in placing the boards in three places after telling the buyers what a big percentage there is in these devices. On Friday evening another stranger appeared in the evening and played the boards with marked success, winning sums at each place variously told from $15 to $25, knocking all chances of favorable percentage to the punch board owners. One of the victims notified the police.

Mr. William Gehring

Denison, Iowa

Dear Mr. Gehring:

For family history purposes, I am trying to locate the descendants of William and Dortha Gehring, who emigrated from Germany with their children Minnie and Fred.

They had a son William in Chicago in 1870 and moved to Denison not long afterward, where I believe the family remained. Their son married and had a son William in 1891.

My great-great grandmother was Elizabeth Gehring Mueller, sister of the William Gehring who emigrated. My grandmother was Florence Cassin Hintz from Chicago.

I would appreciate hearing if you are a descendant or if you might know of anyone who might be. I have enclosed self-addressed stamped envelope.

Sincerely,

Carol Springer

Hello, my name is Tena Schroeder. This afternoon while adding some info to the Crawford County GenWeb site I took note of the obituaries you added of the Gehring family. I am looking for information on this family.

My husband is a descendent of Peter Henry Marquardt and his wife, Wilhelmina "Minnie" C. Gehring. I had been told her parents were William and Dora Gehring. I was later told that Minnie came to the US with her nursemaid not her mother. Minnie was born on June 19, 1863 in Germany. She married Peter Marquardt in 1885 in Crawford County, Iowa. She died in 1938 and is buried at Morgan Cemetery near Schleswig.

Do you think you could add some light to this for me? I know very very little about this branch in the family and would appreciate any help. Just last weekend while home visiting my husband's family (we're in Indiana) we were looking through some old family photos and news clippings. I found a postcard from "Aunt Annie Gehring" to my husband's great grandmother, Adela Marquardt Schroeder (Peter and Minnie's daughter). I also found a funeral card for Fred C. Gehring, Died May 23, 1895, Aged 28 Yrs 11 Mos 18 days. I do not know how these individuals fit in the family tree and I would like to find out.

I look forward to hearing from you. Thanks for posting.
